

Officer Profile

Marie T. van Luling

Marie T. van Luling is vice president – Communications for the Northeast Utilities system (NU). She is responsible for all communications including public relations, advertising, media relations, public affairs, and employee, regulatory, and marketing communications.

van Luling has extensive experience in public relations, customer communications, public policy development and advocacy including serving as senior vice president marketing and corporate communications for Bank Rhode Island, and previously as a managing director for the global communications agency Manning, Selvage & Lee (MS&L).

Prior to joining Bank Rhode Island in 2004, van Luling managed the Boston office of MS&L, headed its U.S. corporate practice, and integrated corporate social responsibility across the MS&L global practices. van Luling began her career at Aetna Life & Casualty in Connecticut, where she spent 11 years serving in positions of increasing responsibility, rising to senior vice president, Corporate Affairs.

van Luling holds a Juris Doctor from Villanova University, School of Law, in Pennsylvania and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Humanities from Providence College. She serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Northeast Utilities Foundation and also sits on the Board of Trustees of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, Connecticut Women's Hall of Fame and the MLS Religious Trust. van Luling is a member of the Arthur W. Page Society.